THE BEES ARE BUZZING!

The Bees went into the game on the back of an impressive two goals to one win at Norwich City. Sheffield Wednesday on the other hand haven't just lost their last game, but also their manager.

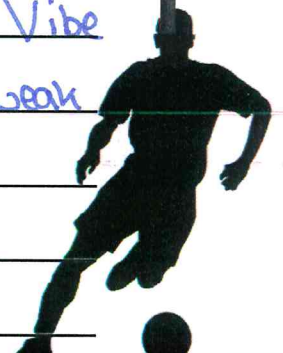

With no big changes to the teams, the game started. 19 minutes into the game Brentford have their first attack and like the Brentford way Joespoozon puts Vibe in with a lovely threaded pass when he calmly slotted it past Wildsmith.

Later into the first half, Sawyers put Josepoozon in but Wildsmith makes himself big to save the shot, if only he did that for Vibe's shot.

The second half had started where Lasse Vibe got straight into gear with a volley on his weak foot, outside the box, however it just went over the bar. Brentford fans clap him on anyway. That would of Surely been goal of the season! Twenty minutes left on the clock when the Bee's had one more chance as Mauphey charged down the pitch as he squared it across the box unselfishly to Joesfozoon where he got his deserved goal. A lovely finish, puts it in the top corner; an impossible save!

David Coote, referee for this match, blows his whistle for the final time today. Sheffield Wednesday need to get back inform for the next game. The possession had been quite even with Brentford having 56% and Sheffield Wednesday 44%. While the possession had been quite even, the shots hadn't with Brentford having 10 more shots.

Hopefully Brentford can keep their form but Sheffield Wednesday need to pull their socks up!
